Institute for Learning I4L

Congratulations to the children for working exceptionally well during lockdown. The children have displayed perseverance and endurance throughout this difficult time.

Writing tasks have been beautifully completed and children have been working very hard with various online maths Resources - excellent progress overall!

Thank you to our parents for supporting their children during the period of remote learning. We look forward to returning to school on the 9th of March. Tuition goes back to one-to-one lessons as from the 9th of March, some parents have requested to continue online lessons which are also on offer.

Welcome to our new pupils from Berkshire and Essex who continue to work incredibly well with online learning.

"Students do not learn much just sitting in classes listening to teachers, memorizing prepackaged assignments, and spitting out answers. They must talk about what they are learning, write reflectively about it, relate it to past experiences, and apply it to their daily lives. They must make what they learn part of themselves."

Arthur W. Chickering and
Stephen C. Ehrmann

Please share and comment on our new page. We would be delighted to hear from you!

"Success is not final, failure is not fatal, it is the courage to continue that counts." "If you're going through hell, keep going." "Everyone has his day, and some days last longer than others."

Winston Churchill

Immersion and interactivity are essential for effective learning. As Churchill so aptly put it, every eLearning experience must focus on reason (practicality) and the imaginative spark. Engagement is another crucial ingredient.

If you don't meet these basic human needs, online learners are less likely to assimilate the information.

I look forward to your feedback and any suggestions.

Have a wonderful break.

Best,

Michelle Clarence

EXCELLENT PUPILS

The Tiger

by Eva Clemenson

As the tiger strolls through the forests,
He brushes past the trees,
Soft paws on the twigs,
As the tiger strolls through the forests.

As the tiger sees his prey,
He furrows his amber brow,
Hides his emerald eyes,
As the tiger sees his prey.

As the tiger stalks his prey,
He crouches low to the ground,
Face near the grass,
As the tiger stalks his prey.

As the tiger chases his prey,
He runs into the wind,
Striped fur ruffling,
As the tiger chases his prey.

As the tiger kills his prey,
He roars into the morning mist,
Acknowledging his power,
As the tiger kills his prey.

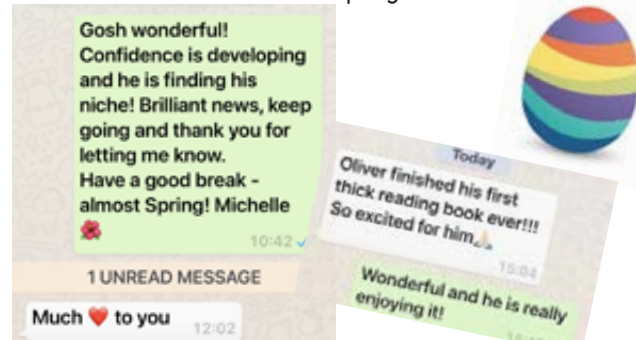

As the tiger strolls through the forests,
He pushes past the trees,
Soft paws on the twigs,
As the tiger strolls through the forests.

EXCELLENT PROGRESS

Congratulations

Kayla Burrows - Year 5

Congratulations on your excellent progress in Maths and English you worked very hard over half term, and made exceptional progress!

Congratulations!

Jasmine Baker

Jasmine has produced superb transactional writing for her pending GCSES.

Narrative voice is the perspective the story is told from. A character within the story is telling the story.

Some of the main personal pronouns used are I, my, me or we.

"Reading is like taking time off from your own thoughts; familiar, bothersome or boring, and making a refreshing dive into another person's mind. Reading is the best holiday I know."

~Joan Aiken~

Narrative Voice Paragraph

Furthermore, the authors employ narrative voice as a key strategy in their texts. This develops their presentation character. The narrator of Chinese Cinderella is a teenage girl called Adeline who is characterised as cowed and intimidated by her overbearing father:

Q

In Running Away, the young female narrator, Waris, is also characterised as fearful but she is presented as determined and more independent than Adeline

Therefore, both writers have employed young, female protagonists to examine vulnerability of childhood and appeal to the reader's emotions.

ART Reviews

Liberty Jones wins the Pablo Picasso Collage Award

Congratulations on your stunning artwork of the brown horse. You are the winner of the Pablo Picasso Collage Prize. Well done!

Michaela's Art Tips!

Start your own scrapbook box. When starting a collage, it is best to think of it in terms of composition, or painting with little pieces of paper. Try using a variety of compositional techniques, such as the rule of thirds, one point perspective or try and capture fluidity and movement in your piece.

Collage Tips! Keep used wrapping paper, cards and tetures and flatten under books.

Isobel

11 February 2021

I really am thrilled at the progress which you have made within one week! Wow!

Literacy

You have effectively learned to use persuasive writing in your advertisement for Bunny Beauty shop - your use of alliteration for names of products is outstanding. The quality of the words chosen is very insightful together with excellent, actual products! You must keep your products for play dates and find raising, well done! You have such talent!
